Graduate Certificate in Global Justice and Security

Prepare for a role in international security and criminal justice by earning the 9-credit Graduate Certificate in Global Justice and Security offered online through Penn State World Campus. This program is ideal for criminal justice practitioners who want to advance their careers by gaining an understanding of:

- › global crime and international criminal justice responses
- › transnational crime, including firearm, human, and drug trafficking
- › how police organizations address global terrorism
- › international criminal justice organization operations

Credits earned in this certificate can be applied to the Master of Professional Studies in Criminal Justice Policy and Administration if you apply and are admitted to the program.
